FOCUS ON THE READINGS: Sunday, October 10th : Discipleship requires courage.

God's call to faithful discipleship promises unimaginable blessings and requires radical trust in God's providence. Like the rich young man, we have futures to get ready. We cannot do it alone - for it is only with God that all things are possible.

FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER: October is Missionary Month and also the month of the Rosary, therefore we will recite the Rosary every Sunday and Wednesday, ½ hour before mass. In this time of pandemic that affects the whole world, the intercession of the Blessed Virgin is particularly precious and deeply rooted in Catholic devotion.

CONNECTING TO THE GOSPEL:

The request from Jesus in today's gospel is "easier said than done." In our own lives of faith, the word of God calls us to constant conversion. Holding up the Scriptures as a mirror, we find where we are in need of repentance and transformation. Despite this, we need not despair, for though it's impossible for human beings to enter the kingdom of God on their own, "all things are possible for God."

O God, source and giver of all things,
you manifest your infinite majesty, power and goodness
in the earth about us:
We give you honour and glory.
For the sun and the rain, for the manifold fruits of our fields:
for the increase of our herds and flocks,
we thank you.
For the enrichment of our souls with divine grace, we are grateful.
Supreme Lord of the harvest,
graciously accept us and the fruits of our toil, in union with Jesus, your son,
as atonement for our sins,
for the growth of your Church,
for peace and love in our homes,
and for salvation for all.
We pray through Christ our Lord.
Amen

HAPPY
thanksgiving
