PARISH & COMMUNITY LIFE

Step 3 of the reopening in Ontario allows a lot more people in our churches, but the distancation and the mask are still recommended by the Catholic Bishops of Canada.

We could have our annual BBQ outside in August, weather permitting. But I would like to know your opinion on the possibility of having it inside if the weather is bad. It is a lot of preparations and we can't really cancel at the last minute. We had the farewell BBQ for Father Mitch last year and everything went well. Please contact Line Gillett if you think we can plan and hold this together.

FOCUS ON THE READINGS: Sunday, July 18th: We are sheep who follow the Good Shepherd, who is here for us and has much to teach us.

Today's readings highlight the glory of Christ's ministry, which was foretold by the prophets and inclusive of all people. The crowds followed Jesus, seeking his teaching and his healing. We, too, are members of this body whom he shepherds; we are taught, fed, and healed. How can we pass on this joyful message of comfort to those around us?

SHARE IF YOU CAN: Mrs. Willie Giesen is looking for yarn. She knits for all sorts of good causes, and if you have left overs or extra yarn, she would greatly appreciate the donation. You can bring it to the church and we will make sure that she gets it. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

CONNECTING TO THE GOSPEL:

Sixteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time: July 18th

Many places in the Old Testament refer to the people of God as a "flock". Psalm 95: "For he is our God,/ we are the people he shepherds,/ the sheep in his hands" (95:7). This image of a shepherd and his sheep would have been a meaningful one to the Israelites. Not only did many of the great leaders of the Hebrew Bible tend sheep (such as Abraham, Moses, and King David), but the people would also be intimately familiar with a shepherd's role in the lives of the sheep. In today's gospel, Jesus looks upon the crowds who have followed him as sheep without a shepherd. They are desperately seeking the nourishment, security, and direction that only Jesus, the Son of God can provide.

Reflection: While we find comfort in knowing that God is our shepherd, today's readings also include a warning to those who have abused the power and authority that they hold over others. Who are the people in your life you have been given to shepherd? How do you strive to take on this role with humility, mercy, and justice?
